One ROSE, lately a Treaſury Clerk,
hath lately appointed,
one SAM: PETRIE, lately a Linen-Draper,
to a Place of Fifteen Hundred Pounds a Year:
The Conditions are;
That if the ſaid SAM: PETRIE, can turn out
the preſent Members for Cricklade,
(as Peerages are now plenty,)
He ſhall be rewarded with the Titles of EARL of DOWLAS, VISCOUNT HUCKABACK,
and BARON DISH CLOUT.

No Wiltſhire Freeholder will e'er abide;
A broken Linen-Draper, from Cheapſide;
In Scotland born; on Oatmeal Pudding fed;
To England ſent; to rob us of our Bread;
The Friend of GUN; who ſwore through thick and thin;
And ne'er was taught that PERJURY is a Sin.
A Man ſo circumſtanc'd, Who will propoſe?
Aſk me, who will; I'll anſwer, none but ROSE.
